

Heritage Open Day

Saturday 14 March | 10 - 3 pm | Rostrevor Men's Shed

Explore, share, and celebrate Rostrevor Conservation Area - All activities FREE

Family Activities & Hands-On Fun

- Explore traditional building materials, crafts and skills and see a traditional signwriter in action
 - Discover 200 years of OS mapping in Ireland and create your own map
 - Meet museum staff and explore the handling collection
 - Children's activities inspired by Rostrevor's built heritage
 - Face painting, colouring, and fun activities for little ones
-

Mini Talk Series

- 10:30am - The Architectural Evolution of Rostrevor | Tom Gilsenan & Alina Holyst (1hr) (followed by walking tour)
 - 12:00pm - The Woodside, Rostrevor Quay | Hilary McGrath
 - 12:30pm - Great Houses of Rostrevor | Paul Clerkin
 - 1:00pm - Rostrevor's Shops and Businesses | Patricia Strong
 - 1:30pm - Local Landmarks | Paul Clerkin
-

Walking Tours

Tours will last 45-55mins, finishing at the Rostrevor Inn with complimentary teas and coffee. Spaces are limited so pre-book: Oonagh.cranley@nmandd.org

- 12:00pm - Architectural Walking Tour with Tom Gilsenan & Alina Holyst
 - 1:30pm - Historical Walking Tour with Peter McGrath
-

Exhibition

- Learn more about Rostrevor's Conservation Area
- Meet the Rostrevor Historical Society and hear about their local research
- Discover historic photos, maps, and stories of Rostrevor
- Get tips for researching local history and historic buildings